

Chapter Seven

The revival of US

Scenario #82 through #97

Reconsidering Vietnam War from yet another viewpoint.
That is reconfirming the Vietnam War and its historical meaning as a part of the confinement policy.
That means the revival of the US.

Scenario # 82

Documentary image

From the Vietnam War created by American TV station GW Boston.

Image of a North Vietnamese boy arriving with a thick mud on the sole of his shoes.

(Transcript, Veteran, male, English.)

“Then we were defeated!”

(Lines; Narrator B, Male: Start out with Japanese and a few moments later, narrator b, male, will narrate the same line in English and layover the Japanese line.)

“Indeed at that time, it could be said that the US was defeated by the ruling will of Hanoi that outfaced enormous number of casualties.”

Excerpts from the film
“Apocalypse now”.

(Lines; Narrator B, Male: Start out with Japanese and a few moments later, narrator b male, will narrate the same line in English and layover the Japanese line.)

“In the directed film “Apocalypse now”, F. Coppola makes colonel Carts played by Marlon Brando say,”

( (Transcript, male Q, English)

“I felt a sense of defeat towards the liberation front when they chopped one arm off of all the vaccinated Vietnamese children as a warning.

---- that was pure -----and stronger human than we are ---- a true power so strong like that of God's.”

(Lines; Narrator B, Male: Start out with Japanese and a few moments later, narrator b, male, will narrate the same line in English and layover the Japanese line.)

“That is in short, as group of superior human circle perceiving them as better than themselves that live in a same world. To be sure, that is one way to see it.”

Japan

Battle at Asama cottage

(Lines; Narrator B, Male: Start out with Japanese and a few moments later, narrator b, male, will narrate the same line in English and layover the Japanese line.)

“For example, the Coalition Red Army that for the first time in Japanese history brought guns into revolutionary movement and performed a shootout against more than 1200 policemen with only 5 members, was in a sense a true Godlike power or a group ----- that was pure ----- and stronger human than we are ----- that acted in an incredible inhuman way for the sake of the revolution. But it doesn’t mean that we think of them as human or groups that are superior to us. “

The excavation ruins of the victims

(Lines; Narrator B, Male: Start out with Japanese and a few moments later, narrator b, male, will narrate the same line in English and layover the Japanese line.)

“Because we have found out the truth of history in a form of the torturous murder carried out in the mountain bases.”

As soon as the narration above ends, switch the screen with a flashing blue light.

② But just because of that, why do they say that the US had been defeated? I cannot understand that.

Containment policy.

(Lines; Narrator B, Male: Start out with Japanese and a few moments later, narrator b, male, will narrate the same line in English and layover the Japanese line.)

“US have a long history of relationship with Vietnam.

We should find the origin of it in the containment policy.

『US lead Western aligned nations must adopt the containment policy to protect themselves from the expansion of communism.』

That is with the containment policy proposed by George Kenan that contains the revolutionary power and waits for the revival of the revolutionary society itself.”

Former Soviet Union, the Red Square

China, Tiananmen Square

Documentary image

Edit the transition of the Square's scenery (people's outfits, atmosphere etc) in a timeframe of every 10 years (or by every leader) from immediately after the revolution until now.

(Lines; Narrator B, Male: Start out with Japanese and a few moments later, narrator b, male, will narrate the same line in English and layover the Japanese line.)

“More than 80 years from the Russian revolution and 60 plus years from the Chinese revolution. In every society, time mercilessly promoted the exchange of generations. Since the expansion of the communism came from the position of an offender within the revolutionary movement, the generational exchange of the people concerned had a decisive meaning.”

Testimony of Chuon nyu tan

(Testimony; witness I, male: Start out with Vietnamese and a few moments later, i male, will testify the same line in English and layover the Vietnamese line.)

“The communist party thinks that the only trustworthy generation is the one that was born to a communist party official's family and the one that was educated and trained by the official themselves.”

(Lines; Narrator B, Male: Start out with Japanese and a few moments later, narrator b, male, will narrate the same line in English and layover the Japanese line.)

“In short, rewritten textbooks were distributed to naïve children. And they taught them that uncle Ho Chi Min was their liberator. But ironically, the revolutionary hostile relationship that had been supporting them slacks there. After all, perhaps all that the next generation is able to inherit is the anonymous report system or the privileges that had been protected by the secret police. It is too difficult to imagine that the boys and girls will inherit the position of people's brutal offenders, that is the position of bloody handed slaughters.
In short, I think that from the moment of gaining authority their privileges only work to transfer their nature as party members to that of the parasite classes of the society.
Just like the Noman Tektura of the former Soviet Union. From there on is divided into two.”

President Ceausescu and his wife executed.

(Lines; Narrator B, Male: Start out with Japanese and a few moments later, narrator b, male, will narrate the same line in English and layover the Japanese line.)

“One is like Ceausescu of Romania in 1989 that was hated by his people and destroyed.”

The gang of four being put on trial

(Lines; Narrator B, Male: Start out with Japanese and a few moments later, narrator b, male, will narrate the same line in English and layover the Japanese line.)

“Or like the gang of four of China that tried to reproduce the revolutionary hostile relationship (the Great Cultural Revolution) again but was self-destructed by their own grave- diggers.”

November 1985

Geneva

Gorbachev

(Lines; Narrator B, Male: Start out with Japanese and a few moments later, narrator b, male, will narrate the same line in English and layover the Japanese line.)

“Another one will be the options made by the former Soviet Union leader Gorbachev. In short, when the generation exchanged and the revolutionary hostile relationship weathered, the ruling movements of the nuclear age that is the end of Cold War and the so-called Eastern alliance went the course of self-destruction. The red wave of communism that covered the world since the Russian revolution was after all only a coincidence of history and never a consequence.”

Documentary image

Coalition Red Army convention

(Lines; Narrator B, Male: Start out with Japanese and a few moments later, narrator b, male, will narrate the same line in English and layover the Japanese line.)

Synchronizing with the narration below, switch the image of 91-1 to that of 91-2.

“In that sense, it could be said that the Coalition Red Army in 1972 Japan was Ho Chi Min and his propaganda corps that were never blessed with the luck that history’s coincidence has to offer and eventually failed.”

(Lines; Narrator B, Male: Start out with Japanese and a few moments later, narrator b, male, will narrate the same line in English and layover the Japanese line.)

“Perhaps it is just a matter of time when Vietnam will head the direction of withdrawing from socialism.

That probably will be redefined by the Vietnamese people eventually.

What was the Vietnam War all about? What did Ho Chi Min mean to us?”

The sorrow of war,
a title translated into English,

米国に対する勝利は、たぶん
正義が勝ったということだろう。
そうゆうことにしておこう。

“The 20th Century was a century of ruling by the Marxism-Leninism and also a century of its tragedy.”

(According to a theory, from the Russian revolution through the Cambodian revolution, the number of revolutionary atrocities victims reaches about 10 million.)

“If we had left everything up to them, there is no question that they would have ruled the world by now. Because they possessed a superior political technology capable of penetrating into people, ruling them and exploiting them, and adding to that, they possessed within themselves an irresistible situation that forced them to do so by the revolutionary movement.”

“But, half a century from Kenan's containment policy, US with its sweat, blood and tears, gained enough time for the world to make a transition.

It could be said that the Vietnam War that lasted 10 years impoverished Hanoi and the communist block and definitely hastened the destruction of the Eastern alliance.

It could be said that 58191 grave posts saved the 21st Century's world.
As a matter of fact, in those days, who else but the US were able to bear that much of a burden?”
