

Chapter Eight

New understanding

Scenario #98 through #99

New understandings of the Vietnam War by the veteran, the revival of the veteran.

On location.
Documentary image

Veteran wakes up and watches intently at the testimony by Viten in TV again.

(Testimony; witness S, male: Start out with Vietnamese and a few moments later, s male, will testify the same line in English and layover the Vietnamese line.)

“Vietnam War was an empty victory. It was a war for Ho Chi Min and the communist party. Come back America! There is no reason that the US has no obligation to support Vietnam again. But assistance will promote the democracy in Vietnam. This is what the US had intervened in South East Asia in the first place.”

(Lines; Narrator B, Male: Start out with Japanese and a few moments later, narrator b, male, will narrate the same line in English and layover the Japanese line.)

“It is your victory, isn’t that right?”

(Transcript, Veteran, male, English.)

“It is our victory ----- maybe.”

Scenario # 99-1

Edited image

Land Reform Movement of Northern Vietnam

People's court

Again rearrange flash images from 99-1 through 99-23.

Edited image

Refugees to the South

Edited image

Resolution of the southern military ruling

Hanoi, Labor Party convention

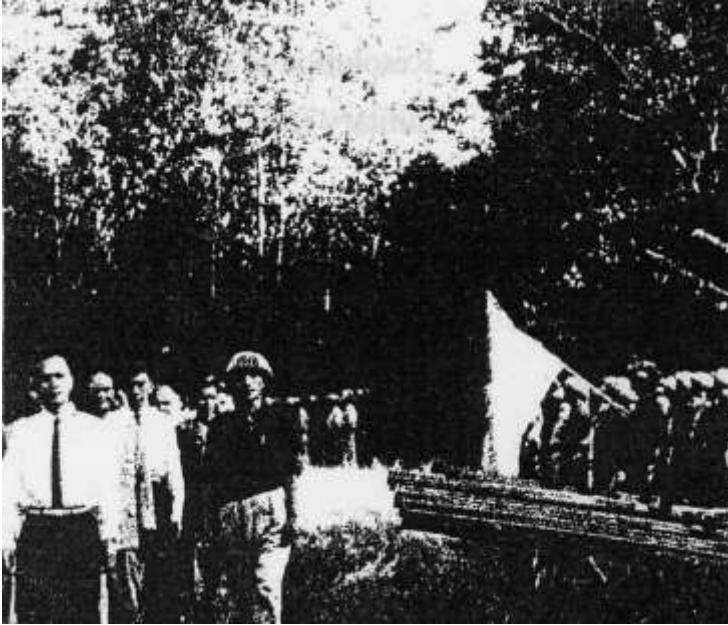

Scenario # 99-4

Edited image

Ho Chi Min route

North Vietnam troops heading south.

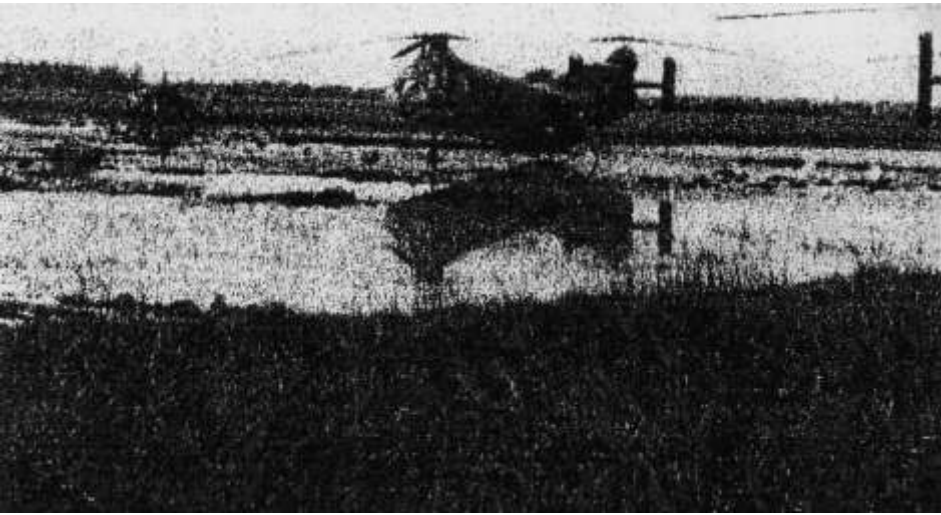

Edited image

The formation of the South Vietnam
National Liberation Front

Edited image

Scenery of a village in 1960s South Vietnam

Edited image

The battle of Abubaku

Scenario # 99-8

Edited image

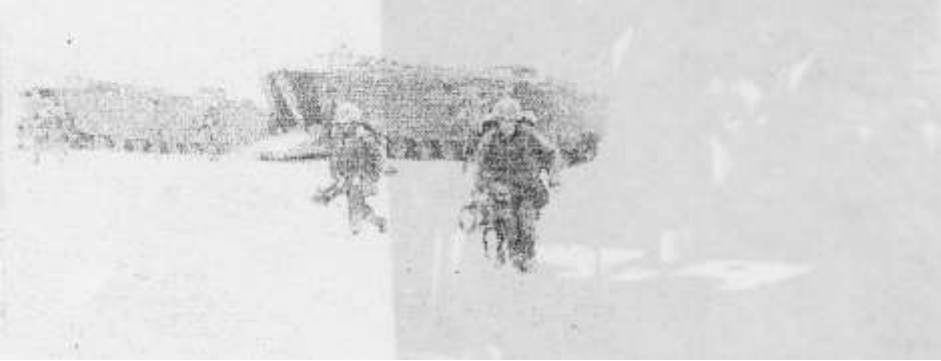

The convention of Tonkin Gulf

Scenario # 99-9

Edited image

The bombing of the North

Edited image

US marines landing on Danan

Edited image

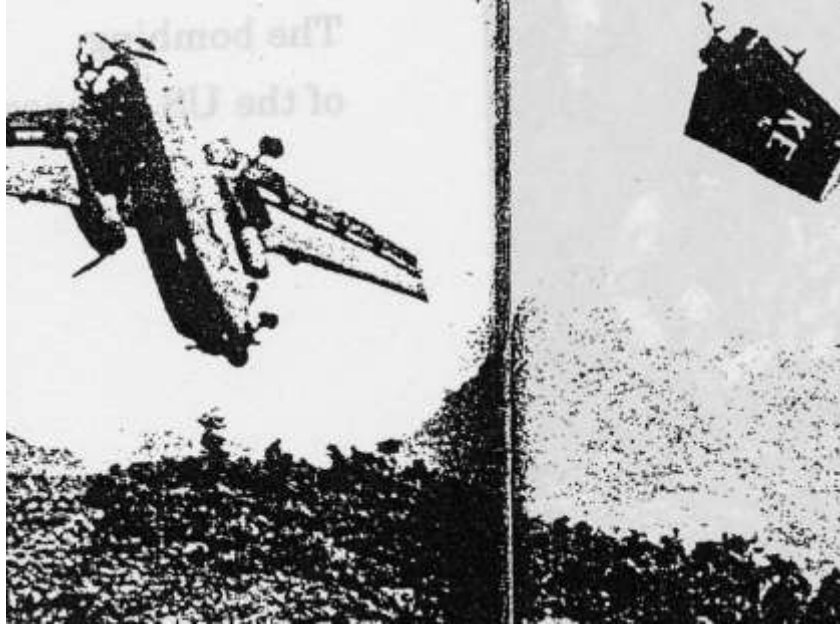

The bombing of the US embassy

Scenario # 99-12

Edited image

Search and destroy operation

Scenario # 99-13

Edited image

The battle of Kesan

Edited image

The excavation site of the remains of the atrocities carried out by Teto, Hue, and the communist troops in 1968.

Edited image

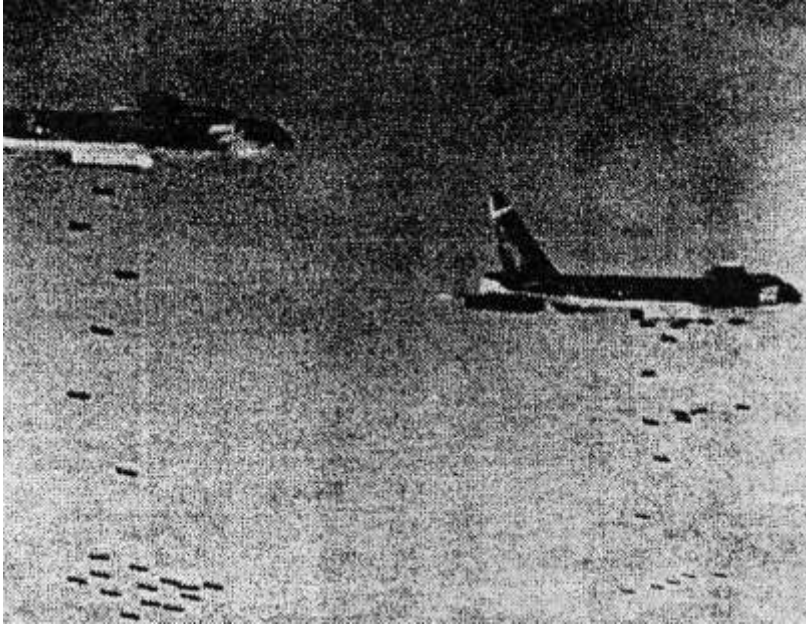

The declaration of not running
by President Johnson

Edited image

The war becoming Vietnamese

Chu and Nixon Conference

Edited image

Christmas bombings by B52 bombers.

Edited image

Paris Peace Conference

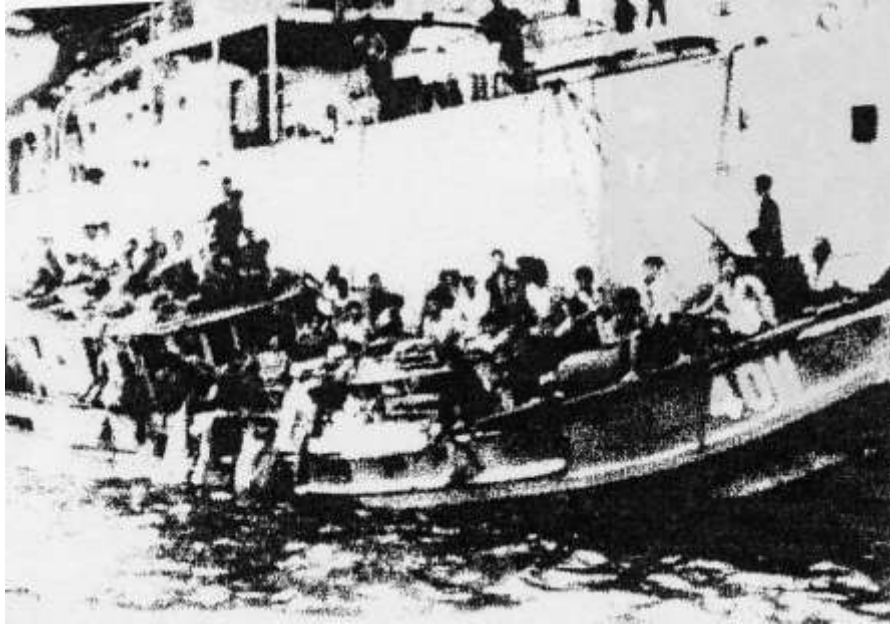

Edited image

Tanson Nhat airport

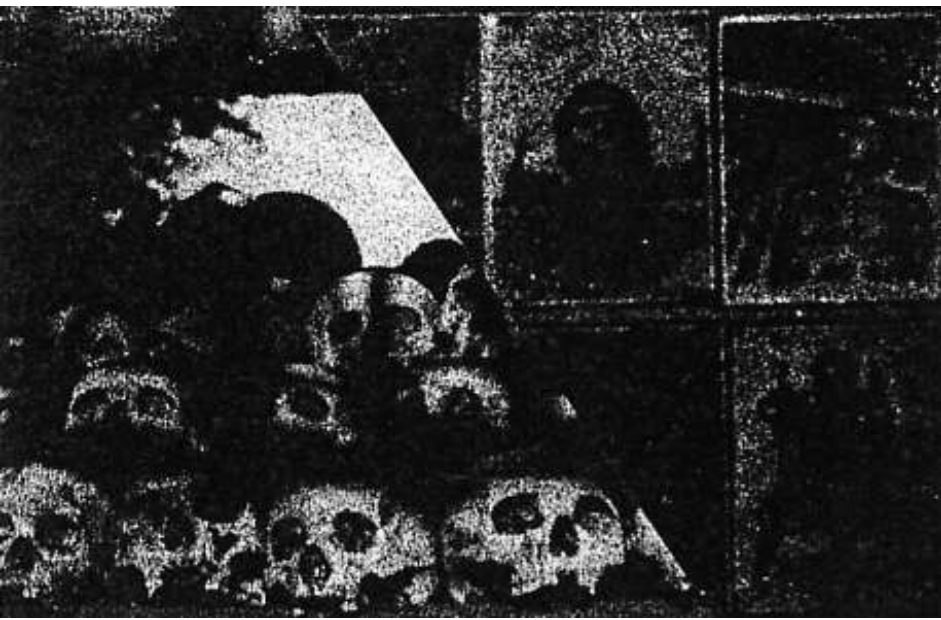

Edited image

The fall of Saigon

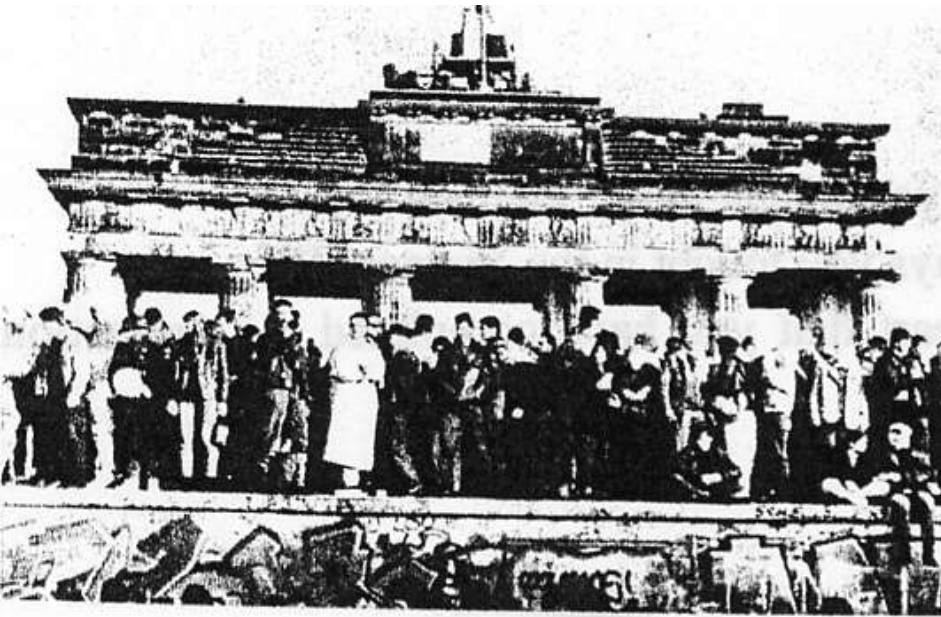

Edited image

Boat people

Edited image

Auto-Genocide

Edited image

The collapse of Berlin Wall

The sorrow of war

Victory against the US probably means that the justice had won.

Let's leave it that way.

Edited image

“The sorrow of war” book

(Testimony; witness R , male : Start out with Vietnamese and a few moments later, r male, will testify the same line in English and layover the Vietnamese line.)

“Victory against the US probably means that the justice had won. Let's leave it that way.”

----- after one breath, refrain -----.

“Let's leave it that way.”

(Lines; Narrator B, Male: Start out with Japanese and a few moments later, narrator b, male, will narrate the same line in English and layover the Japanese line.)

“Victory won by America. Please recollect that in those days you fought in the Vietnam War.

Please don't forget that in those days you fought in the Vietnam War.

And please engrave into your heart that you have completed the protection of the history of mankind.”